

STEADFAST LOVE

"THE STEADFAST LOVE OF THE LORD NEVER CEASES; HIS MERCIES NEVER COME TO AN END; THEY ARE NEW EVERY MORNING; GREAT IS YOUR FAITHFULNESS."
-LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23

Steadfast is the word that God repeatedly put on my heart last year. It seemed like it was around every corner, I would see it in scripture, a friend gave me a gift with the word adorned on it, it had my attention constantly. What a beautiful meaning it has: "dutifully firm and unwavering". When I think of myself there really isn't anything that I am truly UNWAVERING in. I try my very best but I am human and flawed, we all are. I love how it says, "dutifully firm". The Lord calls it His duty to love us. Isn't that incredible? We've done nothing that could ever deserve his devotion to us. It is simply a gift.

Let's rest in that gift this week. Remind yourself when you're feeling inadequate or defeated that His love is steadfast toward us, unwavering + FOREVER, and let it bring peace to your heart.

Today's printable comes from our Scripturedoodle devotional book. I encourage you to take time coloring it in your medium of choice, then add the verse from Lamentations to it. Maybe emphasize the word STEADFAST somehow either by color, size or font.

Praying each of you this week, thank you for supporting our ministry. If you have a friend who you think would be blessed by this week's devotional would you send it to them?

XO- April
